FIVE FAVORITES CASH FOR TALENT

Heavy Track Doesn't Interfere Seriously With Going—Lochiel Beaten in Stretch.

Charleston, S. C., February 12.—It was another day for the mud larks at Palmetto Park today, owing to the rain of the previous night, still did not hurt the going in any way, as there was some excellent contests with five favorites as winners. Although only three faced the starter in the handicap race, it was a struggle between Lochiel and Milton B. All the way, Lochiel led by a head to the stretch, where Milton B. got his head in front and aided by Bulwell's rough riding and his strong finish, lasted the distance and won by a head. It was expected that Corey, the rider of Lochiel, would lodge a complaint of foul against the winner, but this he did not do.

There will be four stakes run at Norfolk this spring, and the conditions for same will be sent here this week. The Monticello Hotel Stakes of $1,500, three-year-olds and upwards, mile and sixteenth, will be the main race. FARRELL GIVES RECENT CHANGES

Auburn, N. J., February 12.—John H. Farrell, secretary of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues to-day made the following announcement of changes in minor league baseball:

The Central League has completed its new organization with the following cities: Dayton, Springfield, Ohio, Port Wayne, Terre Haute and Evansville, Ind., and Grand Rapids, Mich. The franchise and players of the Asheville club in the Appalachian League, have been transferred to Middlesboro, Ky.

Robbed of Medals. Chicago, February 12.—Robert McLean, international amateur ice-skating champion, upon arriving home to-day reported that he had been robbed of eighteen medals he won competing in Eastern meets. The medals were carried in a case, which was stolen from McLean's sleeping car berth last night.

GRANT REQUEST MADE BY BROOKLYN CLUB

Ebbets Field Will Stage First Game in National League One Day Before Regular Season Begins When Superbos Meet Philadelphia, April 9.

New York, February 12.—With the adoption of the playing schedule for 1913 to-day, the club owners and representatives of the National League ended one of the shortest and most peaceful sessions in the history of this baseball organization. According to the statement made by Secretary Heyler at the close of the meeting, there was not a ripple of discord heard during the discussion of business yesterday and to-day.

The schedule calls for 154 games, the season opening, with one exception, on April 10, and ending October 5. Owing to the good will of the Boston and New York club presidents, the game originally scheduled between the Philadelphia and Brooklyn for April 17, has been brought forward to April 9, on which day the New Ebbets Stadium in Brooklyn will be opened.

Should it rain that day the first game on the new Brooklyn grounds will be played on the regularly scheduled date, April 17. It was on the notion of Pittsburgh's president, Barney Dreyfus, that this change was unanimously agreed upon, in recognition of the enterprise of the Brooklyn club in erecting such a costly stadium.

Opening day games, aside from the advanced Brooklyn opening, are: Boston at New York, St. Louis at Chicago and Philadelphia at Cincinnati. Brooklyn opens the season in Philadelphia on that day.

Pittsburgh is more favored with holiday plums at home than any other National League club. The Pirates are visited by Chicago on Decoration Day, by St. Louis on July 4, and by Cincinnati on Labor Day. No other club has three holidays at home. Philadelphia and Chicago have only one each, July 4, with Boston and Cincinnati, respectively, while Cincinnati does not play at home on any holiday, but receives eighteen Sundays and thirteen Saturdays and three holiday dates abroad.

Boston gets Patriots' Day, Massachusetts' particular holiday, with New York, and Decoration Day with Brooklyn. Brooklyn has July 4 with New York and Labor Day with Philadelphia. Philadelphia has Decoration Day with Pittsburgh.

The people in charge of the fair have closed a contract with Dave Driscoll, the New York baseball promoter, to take an All-American club to San Juan during the fair and play ten games, meeting each one of the local teams.

They want to show the natives a baseball team, and are of the opinion that Porto Rico can extend all the comforts and requisites of a Southern training camp.

Manager Driscoll and his All-American Club will leave New York on Saturday on the Porto Rican steamship Brazos at 12 o'clock from Pier 35. Brooklyn, Driscoll has received many offers to continue the trip to further points.

John Abramson, discharging commissioner at Empire Canal Zone, has offered Driscoll flattering inducements to take the All-Americans there for a series of games after finishing at the Porto Rican fair.

The team leaving Brooklyn on Saturday will be composed of the following players:

Not a deal was consummated during the day, although many were spoken of. Managers had cash in plenty for the purchase of players, but nobody apparently had a man to spare.

Manager Frank Chance, of the New York Americans, decided to-day to precede the team to its March training quarters in Bermuda, and will leave for the islands with Business Manager Arthur Irwin, of the club, next Saturday. Chance wants to get in his early start, and he has decided to send word to all the club's pitchers to leave here a week later, Saturday, February 22. The rest of the players are to sail Saturday, March 1, Roy Hartzell, utility man, will go to Bermuda with Chance and Irwin, while Charlie Sweeney probably will go with the pitchers the following week.

Never before has so large a number of games been arranged to be played on the home diamond. A number of games have been arranged with teams that have never before been seen here, nor have they ever played with Trinity on their home diamonds. Among this number are Princeton University, which will be played in Greensboro March 28; Pennsylvania State, at Durham, March 29; the Medical College of Virginia, which will be played in Richmond, March 30; the University of Virginia, which has always claimed one of the strongest teams in the South, and whose claim has been more or less justified more than once, will be met in Charlottesville on April 25. Two games to be played in Durham on May 7 and 8 have been arranged with Wake Forest College, of South Carolina, a team which has never played here before, or at least at any time lately. The Winston-Salem and Durham teams of the newly formed North Carolina League will be played, the former in Winston-Salem and the latter one each probably on the college diamond and the other on the city diamond.

A very noticeable feature of the schedule is the fact that games have been arranged with every college in North Carolina with the exception of the State University. Agricultural and Mechanical, which Trinity has not in many long years met in baseball, is on the paper for two games this season, as is also Davidson College. The Murphy-Wolcott match in San Francisco February 22 against Jones' advice caused the split. Jones said he thought Wolcott could win, but he believed the fighter should have taken a long rest before going into a fight that might make him end himself.

Amateur Commission To-Night

A meeting of the Amateur Baseball Commission will be held to-night at 8:15 o'clock in the office of Commonwealth's Attorney Minniford. Reports from the various managers as to the number of parks available for the approaching season will be received. President Hill wants all members of the commission to be on hand promptly, so that the work on hand may be completed as soon as possible. Much of the delay at previous meetings has been caused by tardiness on the part of the commissioners attending. This will probably be the last meeting of the commission before the season begins.

TRINITY'S TEAM WILL PLAY MANY HARD CONTESTS

Thirty-Four Baseball Games Are on Schedule, Including All Prominent Colleges.

Trinity College, Durham, N. C., February 12.—Trinity's baseball schedule for the season of 1913 was announced here this afternoon by Manager G. A. Warlick, of Newton, and the list appears below. So far as is known by any one on the campus, it is the most elaborate array of games that any college, and will afford the team an excellent opportunity to make a large percentage.

Never before has so large a number of games been arranged to be played on the home diamond. A number of games have been arranged with teams that have never before been seen here, nor have they ever played with Trinity on their home diamonds. Among this number are Princeton University, which will be played in Greensboro March 28; Pennsylvania State, at Durham, March 29; the Medical College of Virginia, which will be played in Richmond, March 30; the University of Virginia, which has always claimed one of the strongest teams in the South, and whose claim has been more or less justified more than once, will be met in Charlottesville on April 25. The Murphy-Wolcott match in San Francisco February 22 against Jones' advice caused the split. Jones said he thought Wolcott could win, but he believed the fighter should have taken a long rest before going into a fight that might make him end himself.

At a meeting of the directors of the Broad Street Park Corporation held at the Merchants' National Bank yesterday, Thomas B. McAdams was re-elected president; Bruce Bowe, treasurer, and W. B. Bradley, secretary. Aside from receiving reports as to progress of the park and the acceptance of the directors, which was accepted, the directors transacted no important business.

Breaks With Manager. Portland, Ore., February 12.—Ad Wolcott, former lightweight champion, and his manager, Tom Jones, have severed their business relations, according to the latter. Jones arrived from Chicago last night, and said to-day that he and Wolcott were closing up their accounts with each other.

Wolcott's action in agreeing to the Murphy-Wolcott match in San Francisco February 22 against Jones' advice caused the split. Jones said he thought Wolcott could win, but he believed the fighter should have taken a long rest before going into a fight that might make him end himself.

Play in the pocket billiard tournament, which will be held in the Superior Billiard Academy, will begin this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The tournament was to have begun on Tuesday, but was postponed until to-day. Malone and Williams will play the first string of 100 balls. The games will be on regulation tables. Six experts are to compete.

Sets New Mile Record

New York, February 12.—A new American indoor record was made by O. F. Hedlund, of the Boston Athletic Association, running from scratch in the one-mile handicap, at the annual indoor games of the New York Athletic Club in Madison Square Garden to-night. Hedlund's time was 4:18 4-5, which lowers by a second his own record made in Troy, N. Y., last February.

Packard MOTOR CARS Gordon Motor Co.

usual series with Wake Forest has been arranged, and games will be played with the other colleges of the State—Guilford, Elon and Atlantic Christian College, but no athletic relations have yet been formed between Trinity and the University of North Carolina.

The Northern trip will be made during the week of April 22, when the University of Virginia, Virginia Military Institute and Washington and Lee will be played in Virginia, and the Catholic University, in Washington, D. C. Then on the return trip the Medical College of Virginia will be played in Richmond, followed by a trip to Concord on the next day, where the last game abroad will be played with Davidson College.
